

MAKING GLOBAL GOALS
LOCAL BUSINESS
ARGENTINA

María Lourdes Delgado Luque

Visiting Professor,
Sustainability Textile
Center and Center for Study of Corporate
Sustainability (IESC)

María Lourdes Delgado Luque, PhD in Communications (highest qualification cum laude) granted by the University Ceu-Cardenal Herrera of Valencia (Spain), Master's Degree in Gender Equality granted by the University Ceu-Cardenal Herrera of Valencia, Master's Degree in Protocol and Institutional Communications granted by the International School of Protocol of Granada, and Degree in Geography and History granted by the University of Córdoba.

Ms. Delgado Luque is part of Labcom research group of the Faculty of Communications at the University of Malaga, member of the Spanish Association of Journalism, and member of the International Observatory of Digital Media (Oimed). In these institutions she has developed a line of research dedicated to analyze the treatment of sustainability by the fashion media.

She has presented papers for lectures conducted at the University of Navarre, University of Basque Country and University of Miguel Hernández at Elche. She is also part of the Inspiring Girls International as a volunteer. This is an organisation engaged in raising the aspirations of young girls around the world by connecting them with female role models.

Currently she is a visiting professor at the Sustainable Textile Center and the Center for Studies on Sustainable Luxury.